Dolphins, ETs, and Angels This book emerged as a result of a series of experiences I had in the early 1980s. I'd always had an interest in non-human intelligences stimulated first by some powerful entheogenic encounters in the 1960s and then by a near-death experience in 1973 in which I saw angels and came to realize, with a complete inner certainty, that other levels of reality exist.

"Adventures Among Spiritual Intelligence" seems to be a continuation of another Wyllie book "Dolphins, ETs, and Angels." AASI is better written and a more enjoyable read (probably because it's longer... hence, the enjoyment is longer lasting!!!). I have to give this book five stars because of what it has done for me.

Adventures Among Spiritual Intelligences: Angels, Aliens ...

Adventures Among Spiritual Intelligences This is the kind of book that a hungry mind craves -- filled with astonishing revelations sure to caress the soul and melt the heart. The protagonists of this fantastic voyage are the mighty cetaceans we are learning to cherish: the incredible dolphins.
